A PESSIMIST PLAYS A PESSIMIST

DR. GREGORY HOUSE, the main character in the hit TV series House, M.D., is famous for being a pessimist. But it is not only Dr. House who is a pessimist. Hugh Laurie, the actor who plays him, is a pessimist, too.

Laurie never thought that House, M.D. was going to be a success. Even after seven seasons, he still feels pessimistic about it. He said in a recent interview, "If we do a bad show next week, they'll say, 'That's it. No more.' It'll just stop. I am, of course, someone who is constantly expecting a plane to drop on my head, if not today then tomorrow."

Like Dr. House, Laurie is also a talented musician and is passionate about the blues. He recently went to New Orleans to record an album in which he plays 15 of his favorite songs. But of course, he doesn't think that people will like it.

When he was asked on a TV show why he was so pessimistic about life, Laurie said it was because he is Scottish. "I definitely think that's where it comes from."
