Uncle Tom has a difficult day!

My name's Katy. My Uncle Tom is an actor. He's not famous but last year he made a film with some very famous actors. It was very exciting. It was the best job he has ever had. In the film he was a bad man! He had to steal lots of money from a bank.

One day, Uncle Tom was in a park with some other actors and the camera men. He had to run across the grass there with his big bag of money. The film cameras were behind him. A policeman was in the street. He didn't see the cameras but he saw my uncle and shouted 'Stop!' He ran after my uncle and took him to the police station in his police car.

The policeman asked Uncle Tom lots of difficult questions about the bag of money. He didn't believe my uncle's answers. But then one of the famous actors from the film, called Fred Star, arrived to help. When Fred Star explained everything, the policeman believed Uncle Tom.

The policeman said sorry, and Uncle Tom went back to work with his bag of money! Outside the police station, a journalist took a photo of Uncle Tom with Fred Star and it was in the city newspaper the next day! It was very funny!

Last week, Jim was playing volleyball at school with his friends when he fell over. 'I think my leg's broken!' he said. Mrs North, his teacher, phoned the hospital. They waited for the ambulance, but after ten minutes, it still wasn't there and Jim started crying. 'I'll take you in my car, Jim,' said his teacher.

Examination Papers from University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations

Cambridge University Press is the only official publisher of Young Learners past papers from Cambridge ESOL – an essential part of any preparation course for the Young Learners English Tests.

Cambridge Young Learners English Tests are designed to evaluate the English level of primary learners aged 7 to 12 – and make testing fun. They consist of three key levels of assessment: Starters, Movers and Flyers.

This second edition for the updated 2007 test, contains three Flyers papers from University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations. These colourful test papers contain engaging activities and attractive illustrations to motivate young learners at this level. They also provide an excellent opportunity for children, parents and teachers alike to familiarise themselves with the format of the test.

The cassette and CD contains the recorded material for the Listening test. The Answer Booklet includes tapescripts, answers and examples of the type of interchange to expect in the Speaking test.
