Harry and Emma's funny dinner

Harry and his sister, Emma, decided to cook the dinner one evening because their mother was in bed. She had a very bad headache. "How about chocolate soup? Let's make that," said Emma. "You can't put chocolate in soup," laughed her brother. "Mum only puts in tomatoes or chicken and other things like that. Let's just make some cheese sandwiches and a chocolate cake." "OK," said Emma.

First, Harry made the sandwiches. "This is easy," he thought. "Now, we need flour and sugar for the cake, Harry," said his sister. "They're on the top shelf in the cupboard." "OK," said Harry. "I'll get some butter and chocolate too. Mum always puts those in the fridge." "All right," said Emma. "And bring some of the big brown eggs too, please. We need to put twelve in the cake."

Emma mixed everything together in a bowl and then put the cake in the cooker. The children were washing the floor in the kitchen when their father arrived home. "That smells great! What is it?" he said and opened the cooker to look inside. "A lovely chocolate cake!" said the children. "How many eggs did you use?" asked Dad. "Twelve," said Emma. Dad smiled. "It will taste great, I'm sure. Let's give it a name. How about 'Emma's Chocolate Egg cake'?" The children laughed and they all sat down to eat their dinner.

There^{are}..... usually a lot of interesting books about famous artists in libraries because people like reading about them and looking at paintings.

One of most famous artists in the world was Claude Monet. He started to paint 160 years. , when he was 20 years old. He painted a lot of pictures, but if you want to buy now, you must be very, very rich. People can still museums to see them there.

Monet enjoyed painting pictures of flowers and water, so he painted the countryside and the sea. He also liked painting pictures of people in gardens on boats. artist was famous because he used hundreds of different colours in his painting. When he looked at a tree, he didn't just green leaves. In the light from the sun, he saw yellow, pink, purple and orange leaves, too.

10

It is strange. For many years liked his paintings. He couldn't sell them, so he was very poor, but now people love them.

Daisy and the funny drink

Daisy Green lived in a flat in the city with her family. Last Sunday was a very hot day and the Green family decided to stay at home. Daisy didn't have anyone to play with. She asked her dad, but he had to wash the car. She didn't ask her mum, because she was in the living room with one of her friends.

Daisy thought, "Perhaps Anna will play with me." But her older sister was doing her homework in her bedroom. "Shh! Be quiet!" Anna said. "All right," Daisy whispered. "But you look hot. I'll get you a drink."

Daisy went downstairs to the kitchen. She took three things out of the fridge: the milk, a bottle of orange juice and some lemonade. It was difficult to choose, so Daisy put all three of them in one glass. The drink looked very strange, but Daisy took it upstairs and put it down carefully on Anna's desk.

"Have you finished your homework yet?" she asked. "Yes," said Anna. "Let's email some of our friends." "Great!" said Daisy. Then Anna picked up the drink and tasted it. "Daisy!" she laughed. "This drink is horrible! Let's go downstairs and ask Mum for some ice cream. Then we can play." "Good idea!" said Daisy.

The new computer

Tony and his mother bought a computer and took it home in the car. They carried the box into the dining room and put the new computer on the table.

"I can use the computer to study for university," said Tony's mother. "You and your sister can play on it, we can all write letters on it and you can use it for homework too."

"What shall we do on the computer first, Mum?" Tony asked. "We'll write a nice letter to your grandma. We can post it in town later. We must go to the shop at five o'clock to get some food for dinner," she answered.

It took a long time to write the letter because they had to learn a lot of things about the computer. Tony and his mother didn't look at the clock. When Tony's father and older sister came home, Tony and his mum were still working on the computer. It was six o'clock! "Hello! What's for dinner?" Tony's dad asked.

Tony's mother looked at the clock. It was too late to buy some chicken and salad from the shop because it closed at half past five. "We can have some bread and jam to eat this evening," Mum said. "There isn't anything else!"

Read the letter and write the missing words. Write one word on each line.

Example

Dear Aunt Sally,

Thank~~you~~..... very much for my lovely birthday present.

When I opened it, I was very happy because I wanted a CD player

1 and now I've one!

2 Dad bought me three CDs last week so I can listen them in my bedroom now!

I had an excellent party with all my friends. We played a lot

3 of different in the living room and Mum made a

4 birthday cake. We going to come and see you

5 week.

Love from

Sarah

Examination Papers from University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations

Cambridge University Press is the only official publisher of Young Learners past papers from Cambridge ESOL – an essential part of any preparation course for the Young Learners English Tests.

Cambridge Young Learners English Tests are designed to evaluate the English level of primary learners aged 7 to 12 – and make testing fun. They consist of three key levels of assessment: Starters, Movers and Flyers.

This edition contains three Flyers papers from University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations. These colourful test papers contain engaging activities and attractive illustrations to motivate young learners at this level. They also provide an excellent opportunity for children, parents and teachers alike to familiarise themselves with the format of the test.

The CD contains the recorded material for the Listening test. The Answer Booklet includes tapescripts, answers and examples of the type of interchange to expect in the Speaking test.
