

Brought to you by  Arizona State University

February 2nd, 2018

Dear colleagues,

On behalf of Arizona State University, Viet Nam National University Ho Chi Minh City, the Higher Engineering Education Alliance Program (HEEAP) and our partners, it is our pleasure to invite you to participate in our 6th Annual Conference, STEMCON 2018 Industry 4.0 & STEM: “People will be the key to success and competitiveness.”

STEMCON was created to serve both public and private universities across Vietnam and the ASEAN region that are poised to enhance their academic programs in the quickly evolving fields of Science, Technology, Engineering and Math. It has been designed to inspire educators to find new ways to encourage students to think outside of the box, along with better ways of engaging industry as we embark on a new era of Industry 4.0.

Academia, industry, and government leaders at STEMCON will participate in two days of interactive plenary and technical sessions, panel discussions, exhibits and seminars that will pave paths for new ventures and partnerships via the HEEAP, Arizona State University and VNUHCM extended network.

Online Conference registration is limited and highly recommended for all of our honored guests and invitees. Please confirm your participation and that of your guests in the conference by registering online at stemcon.heeap.org before the deadline of February 18th, 2018. Online registration includes lunch and open access to all plenary and afternoon sessions at the venue. General conference information is included below:

Location: Sheraton Saigon Hotel & Towers
Date: March 8-9, 2018
Time: 7:30 - 17:00 hrs

More details about STEMCON 2018 can be found on the webpage mentioned above. Please contact Ms. Thao Tran, ASU Program Manager at 0983004001 or Tran.Thao@asu.edu with any additional questions.

We look forward to welcoming you at STEMCON 2018 as we work collectively to advance STEM education in Vietnam.

Best regards,
