Re: Invitation to the Benchmarking Meetings with ASU Leadership on August 22-23 and “Leadership for Effective Autonomous Operations” Retreat from August 26-28, 2019 in Tempe, Arizona, USA

Dear Rector Loc,

Warmest greetings from the USAID-funded Building University-Industry Learning and Development through Innovation and Technology (BUILD-IT) Project! We are pleased to invite you and the following members from Ly Tu Trong College (LTTC) to participate in the Benchmarking Meetings (August 22-23) and Leadership Retreat (August 26-28):

1. Mr. Dinh Van De, Vice Rector of Ly Tu Trong College
2. Ms. Nguyen Ngoc Trang, Head of Science management and International cooperation Department

The information about the Benchmarking Meetings will be sent to you shortly.

The details of the Leadership Retreat are as below:

Event: “Leadership for Effective Autonomous Operations” Retreat

Date: August 22-28, 2019

Venue: Arizona State University in Tempe, Arizona, USA

Attendees: University Executive Leadership

Expected Outcomes: Building on the in-country leadership and KPI development sessions, as well as institutional accreditation efforts, this retreat will leverage key themes of the Higher Learning Commission systems portfolio and standard criteria as an aspirational framework for exploring best practices, models and methods to improve the effectiveness of autonomous university operations. Sessions focus around key areas identified by University Leadership during the BUILD-IT evaluation and feedback process.

Cost: BUILD-IT will cover the cost incurred for the overall organization of the Leadership Retreat; so, there will be no fee to participate. However, participants will be expected to cover their own travel related costs and accommodations.

Please find attached the preliminary agenda of the Benchmarking Meetings and the Leadership Retreat.
