2. THE PROJECTS

- 2.1 The Form of Contract sets out details of the Project. In the event that the parties agree to amend the Project, it shall require to be done so in writing and the Project shall be carried out subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

- 2.2 Save as provided for in the Form of Contract, each party shall be responsible for its own costs incurred in connection with each Project, including all labour costs. The parties shall discuss and agree in advance of the commencement of and, where necessary, during any Project their respective responsibilities for the costs of materials and samples, and any costs relating to the procurement or conversion of machinery or equipment.
- 2.3 Each party shall use its reasonable endeavours to complete its part of each Project by such date as may be agreed and set out in the Form of Contract.
- 2.4 The parties shall each appoint a project manager to assume overall responsibility for their respective roles and obligations under this Agreement. The parties' respective project managers will be responsible for (among other things):
- (a) co-ordinating all development work in respect of each Project, including overseeing the performance and quality thereof;
 - (b) arranging and attending (personally or by representative), at each party's own cost, progress meetings as described in clause 2.8 and other meetings, at intervals and locations as agreed between the parties from time to time, to discuss developments and seek to resolve any issues arising. The parties' respective project managers shall use all reasonable endeavours to resolve issues arising under this Agreement, but shall refer all problems which are outside their ordinary authority to resolve to appropriate members of the parties' senior management;
 - (c) day-to-day liaison between the parties;
 - (d) preparing and agreeing the final reports;
 - (e) such other matters as may be agreed between the parties from time to time.
- 2.5 Either party may replace its appointed project manager at any time on prior written notice to the other party.
- 2.6 Each party shall permit the other's project manager (and other duly authorised representatives) such access to its premises at which any Project is being conducted as may be reasonably appropriate, having regard to the nature and progress of that Project at any time.
- 2.7 On completion of each Project, the parties shall jointly inspect and evaluate the work performed and shall jointly produce and sign a final report in respect of the Project, incorporating such details as may be agreed between the parties from time to time.
- 2.8 The parties agree, at least once every six Months during the term of this Agreement, or at such other intervals and at such locations as may be agreed between them from time to time, to arrange and attend at their own cost by their duly authorised representatives, including their respective project managers, meetings to discuss and review the progress and status of any Project performed under this Agreement, and consider proposals and agree actions in relation to the same with a view to ensuring the due and proper completion of all Projects in accordance with such dates and quality standards as may be agreed between the parties.

3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 3.1 This Agreement does not transfer any interest in Intellectual Property Rights in respect of existing material (Background IPR) which has been developed by the parties prior to the Project Period. All Intellectual Property Rights developed or created by a party pursuant to a Project shall be owned by that party (Created IPR).
- 3.2 Each party grants to the other party a non-exclusive, personal, royalty-free licence during the applicable Project Period to use its Created IPR in relation to the Project to the extent necessary for the other party to carry out its obligations in relation to that Project subject to the following conditions:-
- (a) Neither party shall be entitled to make changes to the other party's Created IPR or Background IPR;
 - (b) Use the other party's Created IPR or Background IPR in a way which may prejudice its distinctiveness, validity of the goodwill of the other party.
- 3.3 At the end of the applicable Project Period, a party licensed to use Created IPR under clause 3.2 shall cease to use that Created IPR and shall return any physical embodiment of the Created IPR (including any copies) in its possession or control to the other party.
- 3.4 Each party shall immediately give written notice to the other party of any actual, threatened or suspected infringement of any party's Intellectual Property Rights (including Created IPR) used in connection with a Project of which it becomes aware.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 4.1 The parties each undertake to keep confidential and not to disclose to any third party, or to use themselves other than for the purposes of the Projects or as permitted under or in accordance with this Agreement, any confidential or secret information in any form directly or indirectly belonging or relating to the other, its Affiliates, its or their business or affairs, disclosed by the one and received by the other pursuant to or in the course of this Agreement or any Project (Confidential Information).
- 4.2 Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information:
- (a) to its employees, officers, representatives or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of carrying out the party's obligations under this Agreement. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's confidential information comply with this clause 4; and
 - (b) as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.

4.3 The obligations contained in this clause 4 shall survive the expiry or termination of this Agreement for any reason, but shall not apply to any Confidential Information which:

- (a) is publicly known at the time of disclosure to the receiving party; or
- (b) becomes publicly known otherwise than through a breach of this Agreement by the receiving party, its officers, employees, agents or contractors; or
- (c) can be proved by the receiving party to have reached it otherwise than by being communicated by the other party including:
 - (i) being known to it prior to disclosure; or
 - (ii) having been developed by or for it wholly independently of the other party; or
 - (iii) having been obtained from a third party without any restriction on disclosure on such third party of which the recipient is aware, having made due enquiry; or
- (d) is required by law, regulation or order of a competent authority (including any regulatory or governmental body or securities exchange) to be disclosed by the receiving party, provided that, where practicable, the disclosing party is given reasonable advance notice of the intended disclosure.

4.4 No party shall use any other party's confidential information for any purpose other than to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

5. WARRANTIES

5.1 Each of the parties warrants that:

- (a) it has full power and authority to carry out the actions contemplated under this Agreement, and that its entry into and performance under the terms of this Agreement will not infringe the rights of any third party or cause it to be in breach of any obligations to a third party;
- (b) it will perform the Projects in a professional manner with reasonable skill and care, using suitably qualified personnel, and will use all reasonable endeavours to achieve the objectives of each Project;
- (c) all information, data and materials provided by it to the other pursuant to this Agreement will be, to the best of its knowledge, accurate and complete in all material respects, and it is entitled to provide the same to the other without recourse to any third party.

5.2 Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, there are no conditions, warranties or other terms binding on the parties with respect to the actions contemplated by this Agreement. Any condition, warranty or other term in this regard which might otherwise be implied or incorporated into this Agreement, whether by statute, common law or otherwise, is, insofar as it is lawful to do so, hereby excluded.

5.3 The Collaboration Partner warrants and undertakes that:

- (a) it has not done anything which if known about would have prevented the College from entering into this Agreement including anything which would bring the College into disrepute by virtue of entering into this Agreement;
- (b) it shall not do or fail to do anything which would affect the reputation of the College or bring the College into disrepute; and
- (c) it has complied and will continue to comply with all relevant laws in the delivery of the project.

6. TERM AND TERMINATION

6.1 This Agreement shall come into effect on the Agreement Start Date and shall continue for the Project Period unless earlier terminated in accordance with this Agreement.

6.2 Either party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement at any time, including during the currency of any Project, by notice in writing to the other if:

- (a) the other party is in material breach of this Agreement which breach is irremediable or, if remediable, is not remedied by the defaulting party within 30 days of being requested to do so by the other;
- (b) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts or (being a company or limited liability partnership) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986;
- (c) the other party commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with any of its creditors [other than (being a company) for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of that other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party];
- (d) a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of that other party (being a company) [other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of that other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party];
- (e) an application is made to court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator, or if a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or if an administrator is appointed, over the other party (being a company);
- (f) the holder of a qualifying floating charge over the assets of that other party (being a company) has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver;

- (g) a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over all or any of the assets of the other party or a receiver is appointed over all or any of the assets of the other party;
- (h) a creditor or encumbrancer of the other party attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of the other party's assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days;
- (i) any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the other party in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in clause 6.2(b) to clause 6.2(h) (inclusive);
- (j) the other party suspends or ceases, or threatens to suspend or cease, carrying on all or a substantial part of its business;
- (k) the other party is in breach of any of its confidentiality obligations under clause 4;
- (l) the other party undergoes any change in legal or beneficial ownership or control; or
- (m) the other party fails to meet any agreed milestone within 28 days of the agreed milestone date, or repeatedly fails over a period of three consecutive Months to satisfy agreed milestones in respect of the Project by their agreed milestone dates as set out in the Form of Contract.

7. CHARGES AND PAYMENT

- 7.1 In consideration of the provision of the services by the College to the Collaboration Partner under the Project (the “College Services”), the Collaboration Partner shall pay the Charges.
- 7.2 The Charges exclude the following which shall be payable by the Collaboration Partner monthly in arrears, following submission of an appropriate invoice:
 - (a) cost of hotel, subsistence, travelling and any other ancillary expenses reasonably incurred by the individuals whom the College engages in connection with the College Services; and
 - (b) the cost to the College of any materials or services procured by the College from third parties for the provision of the College Services as such items and their cost are approved by the Collaboration Partner in advance from time to time.
- 7.3 The College may increase the Charges on an annual basis with effect from each anniversary of the date of this Agreement in line with the percentage increase in the Retail Prices Index in the preceding 12-month period, and the first such increase shall take effect on the first anniversary of the date of this Agreement and shall be based on the latest available figure for the percentage increase in the Retail Prices Index.

- 7.4 The College shall invoice the Collaboration Partner for the Charges as specified in the Form of Contract.
- 7.5 The Collaboration Partner shall pay each invoice submitted to it by the College within 30 days from the date set out within the invoice to a bank account nominated in writing by the College from time to time.
- 7.6 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy that it may have, if the Collaboration Partner fails to pay the College any sum due under this Agreement on the due date:
- (a) the Collaboration Partner shall pay interest on the overdue sum from the due date until payment of the overdue sum, whether before or after judgment. Interest under this Clause 7.6(a) will accrue each day at 4% a year above the Royal Bank of Scotland's base rate from time to time, but at 4% a year for any period when that base rate is below 0%;
 - (b) the College may suspend all or part of the College Services until payment has been made in full.
- 7.7 All sums payable to the College under this Agreement:
- (a) are exclusive of VAT, and the Collaboration Partner shall in addition pay an amount equal to any VAT chargeable on those sums on delivery of a VAT invoice; and
 - (b) shall be paid in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (other than any deduction or withholding of tax as required by law).

8. BRAND AND BRAND PROTECTION

- 8.1 All materials using the Brand of either party shall be approved by the other party in writing prior to their use. Both parties acknowledge that their respective Brands are the absolute and exclusive proprietary rights of the relevant party and shall remain the property of that party. Neither party shall acquire any right, title or interest in and to the other's Brand except the right to use the other's Brand in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Neither party shall use any element of the other's Brand in any manner calculated to represent that they are the owner of the other party's Brand.
- 8.2 Where the Brand of the College has been used, the College retains the right to require changes to the material. Any failure of the College to make such amendments within the period of time specified by the College shall result in the Collaboration Partner committing a material breach of the Agreement.
- 8.3 Notwithstanding the remaining terms of this Agreement the Collaboration Partner:-
- (a) shall make it clear in all dealings that it is not acting as an agent of the College;
 - (b) shall provide the College with copies of updates to its marketing information;
 - (c) hereby undertakes that during the Project Period (or after the termination of the Agreement) it shall not:-

- (i) adopt or use in relation to its business generally any trademark, logo, name or title which the College considers to be similar to a College Brand;
- (ii) apply for, seek or obtain registration anywhere in the world any trade mark identical or similar to a College Brand.

9. COLLEGE TECHNOLOGY OR COLLABORATION PARTNER TECHNOLOGY

9.1 In the event that any College Technology or Collaboration Partner Technology is to be used as part of the Project, the relevant party to whom access is being given (the User) pursuant to this Agreement:

- (a) shall be provided with a right to use the College Technology or Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate in accordance with this Agreement and subject to the remaining provisions of this clause 9 for the duration of the Project Period on the basis that it is used for the Project only;
- (b) shall not be entitled to reproduce, modify, adapt, translate, disassemble, decompile, recompile, reverse engineer the whole or any part of the College Technology or the Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate;
- (c) shall not rent, lease, sell, resell, assign, sublicense, or otherwise transfer rights in or to the College Technology or Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate;
- (d) shall not remove or modify any proprietary notices, legends, or labels on the College Technology or Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate;
- (e) shall not use, post, transmit, or introduce into the use, post, transmit, or introduce into the College Technology of Collaboration Partner technology any device, software, virus, worm, back door, Trojan Horse, similar harmful code, or routine which interferes or attempts to interfere with the operation of the College Technology or Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate;
- (f) shall use the College Technology or Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate in such a way as to (i) violate any applicable laws (ii) violate the rights of any third party and (iii) in such a way as would bring the other party into disrepute.

9.2 In the event that the User breaches any of the terms of this clause 9, the party providing the College Technology or the Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate shall be entitled to remove the User's access to the relevant College Technology or the Collaboration Partner Technology as appropriate.

10. INDEMNITY AND LIABILITY

10.1 In addition to any other remedy available to the College, the Collaboration Partner (except in respect of death or personal injury arising from the negligence of the College or in respect of fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of the College) irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to indemnify the College in full and on demand and shall keep the College so indemnified from and against all claims, demands, actions, and proceedings made or brought against the College and all damages, losses (including all consequential and indirect losses), costs and expenses (including legal and other professional advisers' fees) whether or not foreseeable at the date of entering into this Agreement incurred or suffered by the College directly or indirectly as a result in whole or in part from breach of this Agreement by and/or the negligence of the Collaboration Partner, its employees, agents or sub-contractors.

10.2 The College shall not be liable to the Collaboration Partner in contract, delict, breach of statutory duty or otherwise for loss of profit, use, anticipated savings, goodwill, reputation or opportunity, other economic loss or any other consequential or indirect loss or damage, costs or expenses incurred or suffered by the Collaboration Partner as a result of any breach by the College of the terms of this Agreement and/or any negligence by the College.

10.3 Subject to clause 10.2, except in the case of death or personal injury caused by negligence or fraudulent misrepresentation or in other circumstances where liability may not be so limited under any applicable law, the total aggregate liability of the College to the Collaboration Partner whether arising in contract, tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty or otherwise for any loss or damage, costs or expenses arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall not exceed the sum of £100,000.

If this limitation is adjudged to be unreasonable in the circumstances the limit of the College's liability shall be increased to the amount the College can recover from its insurer for direct loss.

10.4 Except as set out in this Agreement, all warranties, conditions, terms and undertakings, express or implied, whether by statute, common law, custom, trade or usage, course of dealings or otherwise (including without limitation as to quality, performance or fitness or suitability for purpose) in respect of any service to be provided by the College under this Agreement are hereby excluded to the fullest extent permitted by Law.

11. DATA PROTECTION

11.1 The College and the Collaboration Partner acknowledge that they are committed to protecting personal data. It is envisaged that in the performance of obligations under this Agreement personal data may be shared between the parties and that the provisions of Part 1 [and Part 2 (in order to adduce adequate safeguards with respect to the protection of privacy and fundamental rights and freedoms of individuals for the transfer by the parties of the personal data specified therein)] of the Schedule shall apply.

12. FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

12.1 For the purpose of this clause

- (a) FOISA shall mean the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 and all guidance issued by the Scottish Information Commissioner; and
- (b) EIRs shall mean the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 together with any statutory guidance (“EIRs”).

12.2 The Collaboration Partner acknowledges that the College may be subject to the requirements under FOISA and the EIRs and shall assist and cooperate with the College to enable it to comply with any disclosure requirements.

12.3 Notwithstanding the generality of clause 12.1, the Collaboration Partner shall provide the College within five (5) Working Days of receipt of a request for assistance with such information as it may hold to permit the College to comply with its obligations under FOISA and the EIRs.

12.4 As part of its duties under FOISA and the EIRs, the College may be required to disclose information forming part of this Agreement to anyone who makes a request. Should the Collaboration Partner believe information supplied pursuant to this Agreement should not be disclosed in response to a request for information under FOISA and the EIRs, the Collaboration Partner should identify the information supplied that is confidential or commercially sensitive and the reason why it is considers the information to be confidential or commercially sensitive.

12.5 Before releasing any information in response to a FOISA or EIRs request, the College will consult with the Collaboration Partner and have regard to its comments or objections. However, the Collaboration Partner hereby acknowledges that it is the College's responsibility to decide whether or not an exemption under the FOISA or the EIRs applies.

13. HEALTH AND SAFETY

13.1 The Collaboration Partner shall inform the College of all health and safety and security requirements that apply at any of the Collaboration Partner's premises where an employee, student or representative of the College is due to visit a Collaboration Partner's premises.

13.2 The College shall use reasonable endeavours to observe all health and safety and security requirements that apply at any of the Collaboration Partner's premises and that have been communicated to it in writing under Clause 13.1, provided that it shall not be liable under this Agreement if, as a result of such observation, it is in breach of any of its obligations under this Agreement

14. NON-SOLICITATION

Each party agrees during the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) Year following its termination, not to solicit or induce any officer, employee, agent or contractor of the other party or any of its Affiliates involved with any Project to terminate their employment or engagement with the other or its Affiliates (as appropriate).

15. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party shall be in breach of this Agreement nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this Agreement if such delay or failure result from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control. In such circumstances the affected party shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of the time for performing such obligations. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for three Months, the party not affected may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the affected party.

16. ASSIGNATION AND OTHER DEALINGS

- 16.1 Neither party shall assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

17. NO PARTNERSHIP OR AGENCY

- 17.1 Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership between any of the parties, constitute any party the agent of another party, or authorise any party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other party.
- 17.2 Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

18. NOTICES

- 18.1 Any notice or other communication given to a party under or in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be
- (a) delivered by hand or by pre-paid first-class post or other next working day delivery service or prepaid airmail to the address set out in the Form of Contract or such other address as may have been notified to the other party in writing.
- 18.2 Any notice or communication shall be deemed to have been received:
- (a) if delivered by hand, on signature of a delivery receipt or at the time the notice is left at the proper address;
 - (b) if sent by pre-paid first-class post or other next working day delivery service, at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting;
 - (c) if sent by pre-paid airmail at 9am on the fifth Business Day after posting.

(d) if sent by fax, at 9.00 am on the next Business Day after transmission.

18.3 This clause does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any arbitration or other method of dispute resolution.

18.4 A notice given under this Agreement is not valid if sent by email.

19. VARIATION

19.1 No variation of this Agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives).

19.2 Both parties shall, at all times, remain willing to discuss possible contractual variations that have been prompted by technical or other factors, although neither party shall have any obligation to agree to any such variation proposed.

20. WAIVERS

No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

21.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.

21.2 Each party acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement it does not rely on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this Agreement.

21.3 Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation based on any statement in this Agreement
