

Use "is" or "are"

1. There four parrots in front of the living room.
2. There a snake near the window.
3. There a zebra in the park.
4. There lions in the zoo.
5. There many baby lions near her parents.
6. There a bird next to the tree.
7. There three monkeys under the trees.
8. There an elephant in the zoo.
9. There a monkey between Mai and Lan.
10. There birds on the tree.
11. There twenty people visiting the animals today.
12. There eleven children in the classroom.
13. There a gorilla in the tree.
14. There a ball under the tree.
15. There bananas in the tree with the gorilla.
16. There six birds near the gorilla.
17. There a seesaw near the tree.
18. There many fish in the pool.
19. There an ice-cream in the glass.
20. There a fish on the boat.
21. There many animals to see at the zoo.